

Step 10 – Competencies – Section 1

In section 1 you will provide a brief essay for each of the six (6) Integration of Theory and Practice (ITP) competencies. Please click the orange “Provide Essay” button to add essay.

The response length for the essays in this section must be between 1200 and 3200 characters.

▼ Competencies: Section I - Integration of Theory and Practice

For instructions on how to complete this section, please click the "show more" link >>> \(show more\)

ID	Description
ITP1	Articulate an approach to spiritual care rooted in one's spiritual tradition and integrated with a theory of spiritual care.	 Provide Essay ...
ITP2	Provide spiritual care that incorporates a working knowledge of an academic discipline that is not explicitly religious/ spiritual (e.g., psychology, sociology, anthropology, history).	Provide Essay ...
ITP3	Incorporate the spiritual and emotional dimensions of human development into one's practice of care.	Provide Essay ...
ITP4	Incorporate a working knowledge of at least one ethical theory appropriate to one's professional context.	Provide Essay ...
ITP5	Articulate a conceptual understanding of group dynamics and organizational behavior.	Provide Essay ...
ITP6	Articulate how primary research and research literature inform the profession of chaplaincy and one's spiritual care practice.	Provide Essay ...

Step 10 – Competencies – Section 1

Provide a brief essay in the essay text box (1), then add any citations into the citations text box (2). Once you have finished, please click the orange “Submit” button (3) to submit your essay and to return to the competency section.

ITP1: Essay

Please write a brief essay for the competency listed below. Brief essays are to be written at a graduate level.

Competency:
ITP1

Description:
Articulate an approach to spiritual care rooted in one's spiritual tradition and integrated with a theory of spiritual care.

Additional Instructions:
What are the roots and foundation of your faith/spiritual tradition?
Demonstrate how you integrate these theoretical beliefs in your practice of spiritual care.

ACPE Outcomes L1.1, L2.1

Length Requirements:
Response length must be between 1200 and 3200 characters.

Essay*:

1

Words: 0, Characters: 0

Citations (if none enter N/A)*:

2

3

Finish Later Check Response Length Cancel Submit

Step 10 – Competencies – Section 1

Once you have returned to the competency section, click on the next orange “Provide Essay” button to continue. You’ll need to do this for the remaining competencies in this section.

▼

Competencies: Section I - Integration of Theory and Practice

For instructions on how to complete this section, please click the "show more" link >>> \(show more\)

ID	Description
ITP1	Articulate an approach to spiritual care rooted in one's spiritual tradition and integrated with a theory of spiritual care.	Submitted
ITP2	Provide spiritual care that incorporates a working knowledge of an academic discipline that is not explicitly religious/ spiritual (e.g., psychology, sociology, anthropology, history).	Provide Essay
ITP3	Incorporate the spiritual and emotional dimensions of human development into one's practice of care.	Provide Essay
ITP4	Incorporate a working knowledge of at least one ethical theory appropriate to one's professional context.	Provide Essay
ITP5	Articulate a conceptual understanding of group dynamics and organizational behavior.	Provide Essay
ITP6	Articulate how primary research and research literature inform the profession of chaplaincy and one's spiritual care practice.	Provide Essay